Serbia has taken important steps to implement the reforms necessary for attracting foreign and domestic investors. We are pleased to be further strengthening the investment climate and enhancing governance. Given Serbia's strong potential, such positive changes in what is the largest economy in the Western Balkans will have a wider impact throughout the region.

The Serbian government has also moved ahead with an ambitious economic and structural reform agenda which will contribute to a more attractive business environment: restoring growth, improving competitiveness and creating new jobs.

Mr. Johannes Hahn, European Commissioner for European Neighborhood Policy and Enlargement Negotiations

Serbia offers an ideal base for business activities throughout eastern Europe. A strong argument for investing in Serbia is also the access to highly qualified employees, and thus the ability to produce and develop products of the highest quality economically.

Dr. Ronald Seeliger, CEO, STada/Hemofarm

Continuous support of the state administration has monitored all successes of the company, enabling efficient operations and realization of further investments, without major administrative barriers.

Miroslav Okuka, General Director, Tarkett Serbia

Wide availability of highly qualified staff in Serbia is the core of our success. Only through their commitment it is possible to survive in a market environment despite increasing difficulties, to develop new markets, to increase efficiency and take position for future challenges.

Hubert Forster, Muhlbauer Technologies

Numerous factors have influenced the decision where to build the factory, and we picked Pancevo thanks to the excellent infrastructure. We have plenty of room to expand the factory, potentials for its development, several transportation roads, and there's also the proximity of the capital of Serbia.

Mr. Michael Hankel, Member-Mgmt Board, ZF Friedrichshafen

The IMF Delegation was satisfied with the progress Serbia had made in macroeconomic stability and fiscal consolidation. The economic recovery continues to take hold, supported by strong policies and improved confidence.

Mr. James Roaf, Head of the IMF Mission to Serbia (2015)
