SERBIA

PLACE WHERE THE

AGRICULTURE

IS THE CULTURE

Serbia is a land of agriculture and the cult of food has always been an integral part of the country's culture. With over 5 million ha of agriculture land, out of which 60% is arable, and perfect climate conditions blessed Serbia with diversity of fruit and vegetable varieties, some autochthonous sorts and other simply ample to be grown on Serbian land.

Agriculture and food production in Serbia have an extensive tradition. Serbia has been producing and exporting dry plums and swine livestock to Central Europe since 1820. Serbian canned ham has been finding customers all across the USA for the last 50 years, while bovine meat especially goat, is present in Arabic countries as well as on the European markets.

Food industry is one of the strongest points of the Serbian economy. Trade balance of agricultural products is in constant surplus. In 2018, Serbia had high surplus that amounted 1.1 billion EUR, with increase of export for 1.1% compared to 2017.

R&D

16 Specialized institutes

Strong support to agri-food producers from widely recognized research institutes, focused on technologically-advance production that leads to high-quality, environmental-friendly seeds and vegetable crop production.

SAFETY STANDARDS

HACCP certification is a mandatory precondition for export oriented food processing companies, while Government of Serbia provides various types of grants for companies to help them acquire the necessary standards. Major European certification companies such as Evrocet, SGS, TUV Sava, TUV Nord, and Bureau Veritas have their offices in Serbia along with the domestic certification bodies.

GMO FREE

Huge potential for organic production with strictly prohibited production and trade of GMO food.

€6.7 BILLION OF TURNOVER (Food and Beverage Production in 2018.)

€1.5 BILLION OF EXPORTS (Food and Beverage Production in 2018.)

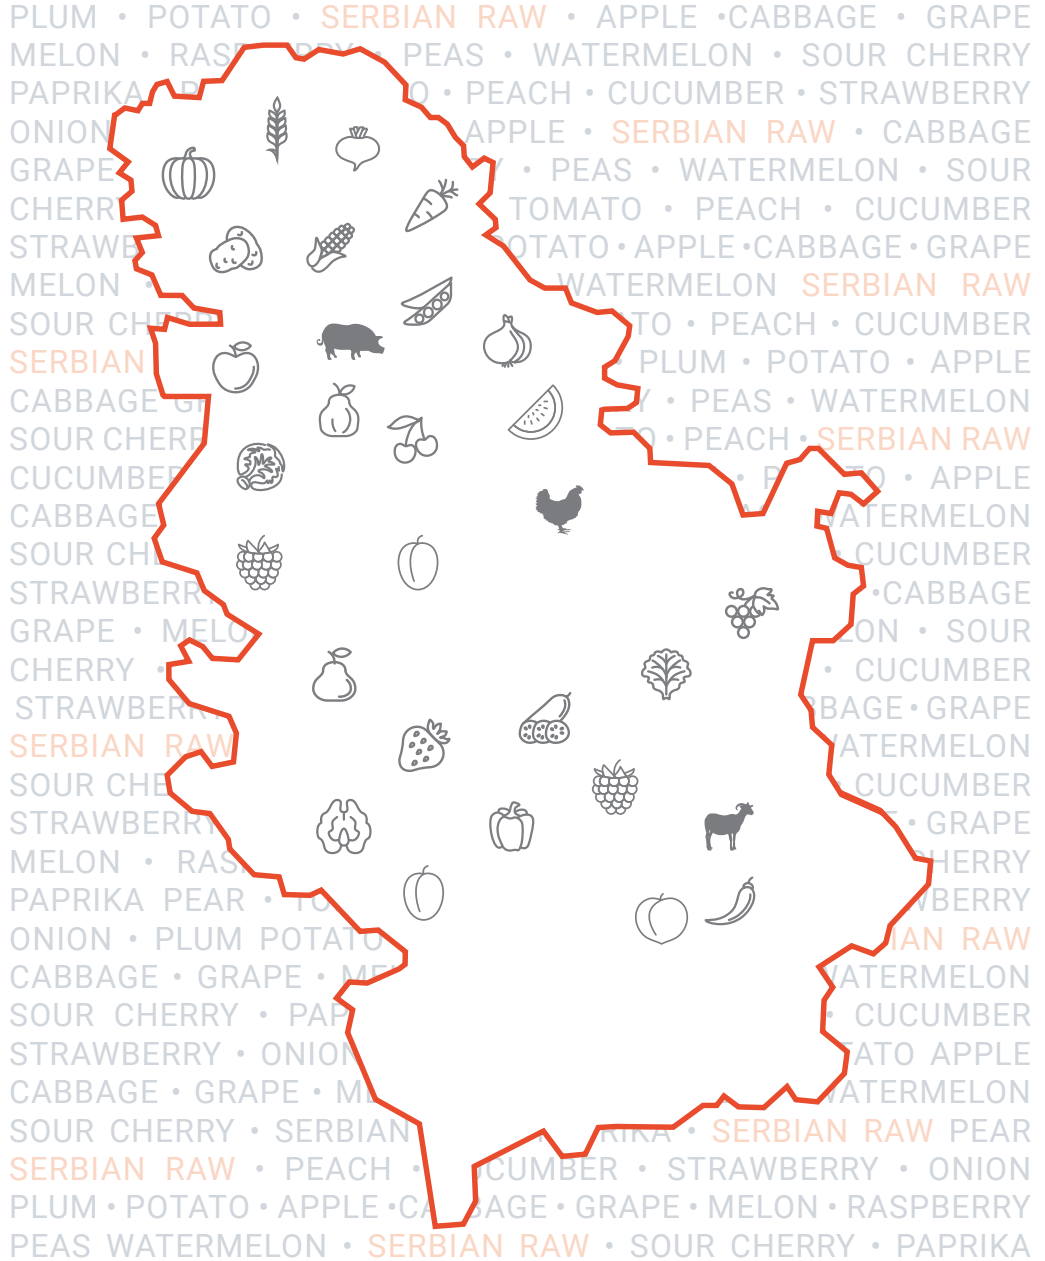

QUALITY OF SERBIAN SUPPLY

5 million ha of agricultural land
78,533 registered individual farmers

An excellent raw material base, network of FTAs, a long tradition of high-quality food production and a strong regional brands are key reasons world class companies have chosen Serbia as their agri-food investment destination. The agri-food sector accounts for a massive proportion of foreign direct investments, whether in terms of value or of the number of projects.

Made-in-Serbia food is present around the globe, from Japan to the US, and is sold under Serbian brands and through world's largest supermarket chains such as Tesco, Lidl, Asda, Spar, Carrefour, Metro, Idea, Leader price, Kopeika, and Rewe. International customers keep increasing orders for Serbian truffles, raspberries, apples, corn, juices, concentrates, purees, jams, frozen and dried fruit and other first-class produce.

THE WORLDS SECOND LARGEST CHOCOLATE AND CONFECTIONERY COMPANY, ITALIAN FERRERO IS SOURCING HASELNUTS FROM ABOUT 1,000 ha OF FIELDS IN SERBIA, WITH PLAN TO GROW TO 10,000 BY 2024. THAT FAMOUS TASTE OF NUTELA, KINDER OR FERRERO ROCHER IS JUST ONE OF MANY COMING FROM SERBIA.

FRUIT

PRODUCER OF RASPBERRIES

Fruit production is one of the key sub-sectors of Serbia's economic development and therefore given a strategic treatment by the Government of Serbia. In 2018 export of Serbian fruits amounted 520.5 millions of euros.

Measured by value of apples, in 2018 Serbia was the first exporter from Europe to Russian Federation. Massive apple orchards are expanding all across Serbia, especially in Vojvodina with premium melioration systems, trendy varieties and expensive anti-hail nets.

In 2018 export of frozen raspberries, blackberries, mulberries, etc. represents 29% of world exports placing Serbia No.1 exporter of this group of products in the world. Serbia is in the top 3 largest providers of frozen fruit to Austria, Russian Federation and Germany. Around 90-95% of raspberry production is intended for export, mainly frozen in bulk. This constitutes a huge potential for investors who are considering Serbia as a production facility for their final products with all kinds of different berries such as: spreads, jams, toppings, ingredients for ice-cream industry, fruit cubes for yoghurt production, etc.

SERBIA'S EXPORTS REPRESENT 30.5% OF WORLD EXPORTS OF FROZEN RASPBERRIES, BLACKBERRIES, MULBERRIES, LOGANBERRIES IN 2019. WITH 148,000 TONS EXPORTED AND WITH TOTAL VALUE OF MORE THAN $250 MILLION IN 2019, SERBIA IS RANKED AS NO. 1 WORLD EXPORTER OF FROZEN BERRIES.

VEGETABLE

SERBIA - MAIN VEGETABLES

SUPPLIER OF SEE MARKET

Ideal climate for vegetable production makes Serbia the main vegetable exporter and supplier of the South Eastern Europe. The most popular vegetables produced in Serbia are: paprika (pepper), cabbage, tomato and potato.

Pepper production is oriented towards pasteurized pepper in different forms: shredded, cooked and roasted. Due to dry matter in it, majority of red pepper is used for production of aromatic spices, but also for preparing a traditional Serbian winter dish - "Ajvar" spread.

Beside pepper, cabbage production is second important in Serbia and it is traditional winter dish. Serbian "sauerkraut" is considered delicacy and local consumption during the winter time is enormous. In the last few years, production of green peas and sweet corn is in constant rise due to the increased consumption of frozen, ready-to-eat meals worldwide.

SERBIAN MEAT

FARM FRESH & TENDER

Livestock farming and meat processing in Serbia have a long tradition. The most popular meat products are fresh or smoked pork and beef, as well as poultry. At the same time, products such as pate, dry sausage of different types, hot dogs and smoked beef and pork are widely spread through all chains of supermarkets in the Balkan region.

Serbian slaughterhouses and meat processing houses have a strong position on the CEFTA market. However, Serbia's livestock has decreased over the last decade by 15 % on average, with lack of investments being one of the main reasons behind. That creates additional investment opportunities to match production capacities with the plenty of opportunity for further development of international placement.

Free Trade Agreement define new quotas for duty free export from Serbia to Turkey, pertaining to beef, sunflower oil, sunflower seeds, soybeans, animal feed and pet food, and the quotas for export of peas, beans, green peas, sweet corn and prunes have been increased. Serbia would be able to export, free of duty, 5.000 tons of fresh, chilled or frozen beef thanks to Free trade Agreement.

THE PRODUCTION OF BEEF IS THE BRANCH IN WHICH SERBIA HAS POTENTIAL TO BECOME MORE COMPETITIVE. THIS POTENTIAL WAS SPOTTED BY GERMAN, FRENCH AND DUTCH INVESTORS WHO ALREADY OPENED FEED PROCESSING PLANTS.

DAIRY FOOD FOR HEALTHY HEDONISM

Besides “kajmak”, a creamy dairy spread originally made in Serbia, Serbia has various dairy products to offer internationally. Sour yoghurt, paprika in sour cream and white soft and hard cheeses are among the most popular ones. All of these products originate straight from century long tradition of Serbian cuisine.

A DISTINCTIVE DAIRY

Fresh and pasteurized milk of the highest quality is mainly used for meeting high local consumption, but also easily finds export markets in the neighboring Montenegro and Bosnia and Herzegovina. However, after stabilization of the domestic dairy market, Serbian export companies began to think more about conquering new markets, primarily Russia and Turkey, due to ratified Free Trade Agreements with those countries. So far, White salad cheese, sour cream spread, hard cheese and goat cheese have already found their customers on the demanding Russian market.

SERBIA FOOD and BEVERAGES PROCESSING INDUSTRY

4,933 producers
70,084 employed (Food and Beverages Industry)

High-quality food processing sector has a potential for Serbian agriculture further development. Whether this is processing for the price competitive brands, or small, quality-oriented processing facilities – chances for success are visible especially in the emerging markets. The results were achieved not only due to price-competitive raw materials, but also because of the significant potential in the CEFTA market and the agreements signed by Republic of Serbia.

Wines of Serbia

Serbia is situated within the area that wine aficionados call "The Wine Belt". The history of wine-making in Serbia is more than 1000 years long.

The most important Serbian vineyards are situated in Negotinska Krajina, east part of Serbia, in the area of Vršac, Subotica and slopes of Fruška Gora in north Serbia, in Šumadija, western part of Serbia and Župa, south Serbia.

THE OLDEST AUTHENTIC GRAPE SORTS OF SERBIA ARE PROKUPAC (RED WINE) AND TAMJANIKA (WHITE MUSCAT WINE).

Serbian vineyards are covering about 22,150 ha out of which 6,500 ha are for commercial use. There are more than 350 registered wineries with a total production capacity of around 70 million liters of wine.

Numerous small and medium privately-owned wineries of Serbia entered the world market, often run as family businesses, and with very high standards of quality and taste.

Traditional Serbian Spirits

One of the most recognized brands of Serbia is Rakija, traditional strong brandy made of many delicious fruits including quince, apricot, raspberry, grape and apple. A good rakija is made of fully ripe and healthy, unsprayed fruit.

Serbia is one of the world's largest plum producer and as much as 70% of the yield goes into distilling of "Sljivovica" spirit. Plum brandy "Sljivovica", is the first Serbian certified brand with protected designation of origin.

DISTILLED RAKIJA ACCORDING TO ZLATIBOR VILLAGE'S RECIPE HAS RECEIVED EU CERTIFICATION.

There are also other variations, such as cherry, healing herbs (Stomaklija), and honey - Medovača. The alcohol content varies between 30% and 40% normally, but some private distillers get up to 50%.

Rakija is served chilled down to cellar temperature, in a shot glass or čokanj (a special long-necked glass).
